

FONDAZIONE CENTESIMUS ANNUS
PRO PONTIFICE

The Fondazione Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice (FCAPP) is holding a Seminar on:

A PROPOSAL FOR A REFORMED MARKET ECONOMY

The Seminar intends to probe into the merits of a paper published by the Fondazione Centesimus Annus Pro Pontifice, referred to as the 2015 Statement, a “Reformed Market Economy: Entrepreneurship for Human Development”. The paper has been researched, debated and written during a number of conventions held in the Vatican, Dublin, London and New York in response to Pope Francis’ statement “thou shalt not to an economy of exclusion and inequality – such an economy kills”.

Date: 3rd June 2015

Time: 18.00 – 19.30 Hours

Venue: The Seminary, Tal- Virtu’

Panel of Speakers:

Lawrence Zammit, Economist and businessman

Rev. Fr Mark Sultana, Philosopher

Gejtu Vella, a former Trade Unionist, today industrial relations consultant

Joseph F X Zahra, Chairman of Panel

HG Archbishop Charles J. Scicluna will be addressing the Seminar.

An invitation is extended to the general public, and attendance is guaranteed by emailing before the 3rd June 2015 on mspiterigonzi@miscomalta.com

A copy of FCAPP 2015 statement “A Reformed Market Economy: Entrepreneurship for Human Development” is available electronically on request by emailing Joseph F X Zahra on jfxzahra@miscomalta.com

CAPPF-MALTA CHAPTER
c/o Misco, Fino Bldgs, Level 1,
Notabile Road,
Mriehel BKR3000